EMMA LOMMASSON
RECEIVES AWARD
AT U OF MONTANA

MISSOULA---

Mrs. Emma B. Lommasson, assistant registrar at the University of Montana, was awarded the Air Force ROTC Certificate of Appreciation Thursday (Jan. 15) for her interest in the AFROTC program and in related coed activities.

The award was presented by Col. Jack Swayze, chairman of Aerospace Studies at UM, in behalf of Brigadier Gen. B. B. Cassiday Jr., of Maxwell Air Force Base, Ala., the AFROTC commandant.

Col. Swayze said the certificate presented to Mrs. Lommasson "is in recognition of meritorious and dedicated service displayed through her personal interest" in the AFROTC program and Angel Flight, a women's drill team on campus.

Mrs. Lommasson has been Angel Flight faculty adviser more than 15 years at UM. Two years ago this spring the UM Angel Flight drill team placed first in the Lilac Festival at Spokane, Wash., and last spring the team placed second at the festival.
